The BRITON.

Rara Temporum felicitas, ubi sentire quæ velis & quæ sentias dicere licet. TACIT.

LIBERTY is the Divine Source of all Human Happiness; where it is lost, Life is uncertain, always miserable, often intolerable. The Priviledges of Thinking, Saying, and Doing what we please, and of growing as rich as we can, without any other Restriction, than that by all This we hurt not the Publick, nor one another, are the glorious Priviledges of Liberty; and its Effects, to live in Freedom and Safety, are peculiar to Englishmen.

To possess, in Security, the Effects of our Industry, is the most powerful and reasonable Incitements to be industrious; and to be able to provide for our Children, and leave them all that we have, is the best Motive to beget them.

But where Liberty and Property are precarious, as they will ever be to Protestants, under a Popish Government, Labour will languish. In a Word, Liberty is to live upon One's own Terms; Slavery, is to live at the arbitrary Will and meer Mercy of another. Under such a Government, a Subject worth 20000 l. To-Day, may, on a sudden Edict or Order, be a Beggar To-morrow; and lose his Life, without having deserved to forfeit it. The Property of a whole Kingdom shall be great, or little, or none, just at the Mercy of a Secretary's Pen, guided by a Cardinal, a Jesuit, a Woman, or whoever is Uppermost for the Day.

All honest Men will exert themselves on this Occasion, and oppose the Schemes and Attempts of the Pretender and his Accomplices; whose Success is incompatible with the Honour, the Property, the Religion, the Liberty of Britons.

SCOTLAND.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 9 The young Chevalier affects a great Deal of Popularity; he has granted a Pass to a Linnen Draper in London, who had been in Perth buying a Quantity of Linnen Cloth and told him he expected to be at St James's in the Space of two Months. The D. of P's Tenants, who will not willingly concur in his Measures, are fled, leaving their Families and their Harvest work, to avoid an ill-tim'd and cruel Resentment.

We are inform'd that a Party of the Enemy, consisting of about 200 Men, of the Clan Ronalds, enter'd Dundee on Saturday at Two o'Clock in the After noon, under Pretence that they came to search for Arms, but it luckily happen'd that all which belong'd to Col. Murray's Regiment were shipp'd about two Hours before on board Capt Read, Commander of one of his Majesty's Yatchts, who sail'd directly for the Firth; at Six o' Clock they read the Manifestoes and Declarations, and began to search for Ammunition, Warlike Stores, &c. ——They are extending themselves over Strathearn and the adjacent Countries.

Edinburgh, Sept. 10. The Honourable Magistrates having receiv'd his Majesty's Sign Manuel, accepting of the Offer of the Inhabitants of Edinburg, to raise 1000 Men for his Majesty's Service, to be employ'd for the Defence of the City, and in Support of the Government, against the Rebels, a Subscription was open'd Yesterday in the Afternoon; and in two Hours, Money enough was sign'd for maintaining 600 Men, and one Month's Pay advanc'd at subscribing

It is assur'd, that the late Marquis of Tullibardine, having us'd his utmost Efforts to draw the Duke of Athole's Tenants into rebellious Measures, met with an unexpected Rebuff, and having only a few Horse, came towards Perth in the Night time; the Alarm spread amongst the Highlanders that a strong Detachment of Dragoons was at hand, and ready to attack them; on which they fled from their Camp, notwithstanding all the Remonstrances of their Chiefs, and call'd aloud, She ge re fight Traitors, she gang Traitors; she te fight but with her Claymore, but no Traitors; and with Difficulty got them perswaded to return, after they were certain it was only a false Alarm.—Not one half of them have tolerable Arms; and are such a pitiful ignorant Crew, that such as have spread themselves to seek for Arms are fit for nothing: They can give no Account of their Strength, of their Designs, or even of themselves; but talk of Sutling, K James's, Retreat, Plunder, new Dragoons, &c. and diminish daily.

By Letters from Glasgow, that City is in constant Alarm for fear of a Visit from the Highlanders, whom they resolve vigorously to oppose; and about 300 of the Inhabitants are under Arms every Night.

Edinburgh, Sept. 12. Advice is receiv'd that the Highlanders, to the Number of 1800 or 2000, decamp'd Yesterday from Perth, after having put that Town under Contribution, 500 l. Sterling instantly paid, and Hostages taken for the Payment of 500 l more who are Mr. Peter Cox, Brother to the Provost, and Mr David Sandyman: They have likewise seiz'd the Town's Charters for the further Security of their Payment.

Before they left Perth, thought proper to secure, for their own Use, all the Horses they could find; they particularly sent to a Gentleman near Dumfarling, who was constrain'd to lend them three, and was promis'd Payment; but when once they had them in Possession, they wav'd that Particular.

The Rebels have seiz'd a Ship at Dundee with ten Barrels of Powder on board, which they sent to their Army at Perth.

WHITEHALL, Sept. 21. The Rebels left Perth the 11th, and marched that Day to Dumblain, 20 Miles; the next Day they march'd only two Miles, to Down; and on Friday the 13th they pass'd the Firth at the Fords of Frows, five Miles; above Sterling: They then seemed to direct their March towards Glasgow; but on the 14th in the Morning they turned Eastward, and marched by Falkirk, towards Edinburgh; and when the Letters came away, they were within a few Miles of that City.

On the 16th in the Afternoon, Brigadier Fowkes marched to Prestonpans, six Miles East of Edinburgh, with two Regiments of Dragoons, in order to join Sir John Cope, who was just arrived from Aberdeen, where he had embarked and was then making a Disposition to land the Troops under his Command at Dunbar, eighteen Miles East of Edinburgh, the Wind not being then fair to carry the Transports up to Leith

By Letters of the 18th, the Rebels had taken Possession of the Town and proclaimed the Pretender there on the 17th.

General Guest, who commanded at Edinburgh, had retired into the Castle, where the Publick Offices and the Inhabitants had secured their most valuable Effects; and General Cope being joined by two Regiments of Dragoons, was on his March the 18th towards Edinburgh.

LONDON, September 19

A Messenger is hourly expected to arrive at St. James's with the Queen of Hungary's Ratification to the Treaty of Peace between her Majesty and the King of Prussia.

We learn from Harwich, that a Spanish Man of War of 70 Guns, having on board a large Quantity of small Arms and Ammunition, with which 'tis supposed she was bound for Scotland, was lost last Week upon the Coast of Holland.

CHARLES-TOWN, December 2.

Last Week Capt. Ramsay sail'd from Fredericа, with a Flag of Truce and 74 Spanish Prisoners to be exchang'd at the Havanna.

A Ship from Kinsale for Virginia, having lost all her Masts, and receiv'd a great Deal of Damage, put into this Port last Tuesday.

Yesterday Morning sailed on a Cruize, his Majesty's Ship the Aibrough, Capt Utting.

A Sloop with 65 English Prisoners from the Havanna is arrived. —What Intelligence we have receiv'd by her, will be inserted in our next.

By the last Vessels from Europe, we learn, That the Grand Duke of Tuscany was elected Emperor. That an Accommodation was on the Point of being concluded between their Prussian and Hungarian Majesty's. That the Duke of Cumberland was arriv'd in Scotland, with the Army from Flanders and some Dutch Troops, and was to be joined by a Corps under General Blakeney, to oppose the Pretender,—whose being possess'd of the Castle of Edinburgh (as was said in our last) was a Mistake, he having only entered the City. And that Admiral Vernon was on the Cruize with 40 Men of War, besides which he has a great Number of small Vessels, which he employs in gaining Intelligence, the French and Spanish Fleets having put to Sea.
